

Categories of free admission to PIOP's Museums Network:

- 1) All visitors under 18, upon presentation of their national identity card or passport.
- 2) All visitors over 65, upon presentation of their national identity card or passport.
- 3) Students night schools and second-chance schools.
- 4) All students of Greek universities, technical institutes or equivalent educational establishments of European Union Countries upon presentation of their student card.
- 5) Those serving their military service by showing their military ID.
- 6) Officials of the Ministry of Culture, with the demonstration of their identity.
- 7) Group visits of all three levels of education (students with the teaching personnel)
- 8) Tourist guides upon presentation of their professional card, as well as the drivers of tour coaches.
- 9) Journalists, upon presentation of their press card.
- 10) Holders of the special I.C.O.M. and I.C.O.M.O.S. member card, upon its presentation.
- 11) Members Companies and Associations of Friends of Museums and Archaeological Sites in Greece by showing a certified member card.
- 12) The card holders free entry upon presentation of a certified card.

- 13) The Culture Card holders, upon presentation of a certified card.
- 14) Holders of the European Youth Card, upon its presentation.
- 15) The members of KAPH, by showing a certified card.
- 16) Disabled people as well as their companion.
- 17) Unemployed, with demonstration of unemployment card.
- 18) For the museums of Silk, Open Air Water-Power, Industrial Olive-Oil Production of Lesvos, Marble Crafts, The Environment Museum of Stymphalia, residents of the village in which the museum and originating from it (the measure does not apply to The Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, The Rooftile and Brickworks Museum N. & S. Tsalapatas because the sizes are not controllable).

All identification cards must be in effect.